RiverLink is spearheading the environmental and economic revitalization of the French Broad River watershed as an ideal place to live, work, and play. Volunteers are the life-blood of RiverLink. There are many ways you can help – from assisting at a RiverLink-sponsored event to becoming a river clean-up coordinator. You can truly help make a difference for the river and our region by joining our team of volunteers. Get ready, the fun is just beginning! Please take a moment to fill out this form and we will match your skills and interests with our activities.
